Description

Demonstrates the ability to construct a problem statement with evidence of most relevant contextual factors, and problem statement is adequately detailed.

Identifies multiple approaches for solving the problem that apply within a specific context.

Proposes one or more S/H that indicates comprehension of the problem.

Solutions/hypotheses are sensitive to contextual factors as well as the one of the following: ethical, logical, or cultural dimensions of the problem.

Evaluation of solutions is adequate (for example, contains thorough explanation) and includes the following: considers history of problem, reviews logic/reasoning, examines feasibility of solution, and weighs impacts of solution.

Implements the solution in a manner that addresses multiple contextual factors of the problem in a surface manner.

Reviews results relative to the problem defined with some consideration of need for further work.
