Assessment of Outcomes

The M.Ed. in Curriculum and Instruction currently enrolls only three students. None of the three students enrolled took CIED 5423 during the 2016-2017 academic year, so there was no data to analyze for this academic year. Only one student graduated from the M.Ed. program, and the data for Outcome #3 indicates that the student successfully obtained passing scores for the defense of the Action Research Project.

Next Steps

Based upon the scant amount of data we have this year, it will be important to work on recruitment for this program as well as improving advising so that more students can complete their program of study.
