

Here is our data for this year:

Communication:

- Written: two students took the written portion of the comprehensive exam, both passed
- Oral: one student took the oral portion of the comprehensive exam (which is our second year paper presentation), one passed

Critical Thinking/Problem Solving:

- one student attempted a dissertation defense, one passed

Technical Competence/Discipline Knowledge:

- two students took the written portion of the comprehensive exam, both passed

Teaching:

- Here are the students who have taught in the past year (previously, I think the College pulled whatever evaluation information they needed for these teaching assignments):
- Student 1 - ACCT 20103 – 2 sections – Fall 2024 – student 1 withdrew from the PhD program and did not complete this teaching semester.
- Student 2 – ACCT 3543 – 2 sections – Spring 2025
- Student 3 – ACCT 20103 – 2 sections Spring 2025

Indirect Measure/Placements Salaries:

- Student 4 – Missouri Southern State University - $99,650 (no summer support)
- Student 5 – Illinois State University - $171,000 + $19,000 in summer support for two years (extra summer teaching is an additional $14,250 if accepted, probably not early in tenure clock)
- Student 6 – University of Arkansas Ft. Smith - $110,000 (no summer support)
