The office of corporate and foundation relations was established to support, coordinate, and integrate student advancement, research, and university outreach activities with industry and mission-based organizations. The corporate and foundation relations team works to simplify external access to resources at the University of Arkansas in order to maximize the impact of higher education with an approach that is mutually beneficial to both the contributing organization and the university.

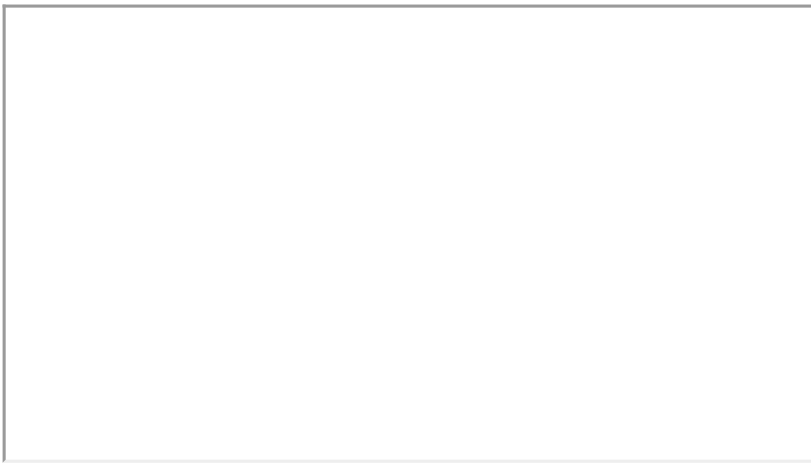

Thank you for joining us!

A crowd of nearly 600 Walmart associates and members of the supplier community joined us on September 4 to hear special remarks from University of Arkansas Chancellor G. David Gearhart and Walmart President & CEO Doug McMillon, among others. Thank you to everyone who attended!

Why the University of Arkansas?

The University of Arkansas is a great place to call home! Please watch this brief visual tour of the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, and Northwest Arkansas to learn why.
